

2019 Sacred Liturgy Conference "The Living Waters of the Eucharist"

The 7th annual conference took place May 28–31, 2019 in Spokane, Washington on the campus of Gonzaga University, St. Aloysius Catholic Church and the Cathedral of Our Lady of Lourdes.

- Lecture I The Sacramental Theology of Living Water
Msgr. Richard Huneger, STL
- Lecture II Mary in the Mystery of the Priesthood and the Mass
Msgr. Andrew Wadsworth, MA
- Lecture III Dew, Tears, and Torrents: The Living Waters of Tradition
Peter Kwasniewski, PhD
- Lecture IV What happens when Jesus discusses Liturgy with a Foreign Woman?
Nathan Schmiedicke, PhD
- Lecture V Eucharistic Contemplation on the Wings of Gregorian chant
Rev. Gabriel Mosher, OP
- Lecture VI Can Canon Law Legislate the Life-giving Water of the Liturgy?
Magdalen Ross, JCL
- Lecture VII What Makes Holy Water Holy? Reflections on the Rites for the Blessing of Holy Water / Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone
- Lecture VIII The Holy Eucharist and the Living Water: Out of Whose Belly?
Nathan Schmiedicke, PhD
- Lecture IX Gregorian Chant: Reservoir of Faith, Wellspring of Devotion
Peter Kwasniewski, PhD
- Lecture X China, Politics, Faith, and the Liturgical Village: Cardinal Joseph Zen in Context
Anthony E. Clark, PhD
The Gregorian Liturgy in China
Cardinal Joseph Zen (A pre-recorded interview from Hong Kong)
- Lecture XI The Liturgical Space of The Liturgy
Enzo Salvaggi
- Lecture XII Dying with Christ to be Born of The Spirit
Bishop Robert Vasa
- Question and Answers with Faculty Panel (Part 1 & 2)
- Homilies: Bishop Thomas Daly / Rev. Gabriel Mosher, OP
Msgr. Andrew Wadsworth / Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone